If there is more than one division of the first three legs, each division will race for 100% of the advertised purse. All nomination fees will be added to the final event.

The final event will be limited to the top nine money winners. If one of the top nine money winners does not declare in the final, the next highest winner declared will become eligible to the Final. If horses are tied in money earnings, they will be drawn by lot to constitute a nine horse field. One also-eligible will be programmed for the Final. Nominated horses that are non-starters in the series will not be eligible to the final. Rideau Carleton Raceway (RCR) reserves the right to require five separate betting interests in the Final or the event may be declared off and all monies paid in by nomination payments shall be divided equally among those declared into start. RCR reserves the right to reject any entry and return fees, to declare the event off if conditions warrant, call off the event if there less than sixteen (16) nominations, and place in the correct classes if not entered correctly. In the event RCR cancels or delays the racing program(s) due inclement weather or any another cause leading to temporally disruption of the racing schedule, nominees and/or trainers will be notified regarding rescheduling or cancellation. RCR is not responsible for any inadequacies in the postal system for late nominations.

This event is conducted under the Rules and Regulations of the Ontario Racing Commission and RCR.

Purse distribution – 1st 50% - 2nd 25% - 3rd 12% - 4th 8% - 5th 5%.
